

Orange County Head Start, Inc. Career Opportunity

Education Development Coach

Would you like to make a difference in the lives of Orange County's most vulnerable children?

As a non-profit organization, Orange County Head Start, Inc. (OCHS) serves preschoolers, infants, toddlers, pregnant women and families throughout Orange County, including families on public assistance, children with disabilities, from homeless and foster families, and teen parents. OCHS's programs and services promote school readiness, early reading, science, mathematics, social skills and physical development. Through the additional support of comprehensive services, including health, nutrition, mental health and family partnership building, parents are empowered as leaders and advocates for their children's education, families' success, and betterment of the communities.

The Education Development Coach is responsible for assisting the Education Development Manager with planning, coordinating and implementing a teacher professional development system to ensure that teaching staff have a variety of professional development and educational opportunities to meet the performance requirements and all applicable regulations, specifically Head Start Program Performance Standards and the Head Start Act of 2007; assisting with the implementation of a CLASS monitoring system and training and technical assistance plan to ensure professional development of teachers, quality teaching practices, and compliance with all applicable regulations; observing classrooms utilizing the CLASS and curriculum fidelity monitoring tools; and preparing related paperwork and reports to identify and inform the teacher professional development system.

Education requirements: Bachelor's degree in Early Childhood Education, Adult Education, Training, Human Development or related field. Must possess and maintain CLASS Reliability.

Experience: Minimum of five years of related experience, preferably in Head Start, Early Head Start or other State funded organization. Experience with staff training and coaching.

We offer a salary of $30.00 an hour, excellent benefits, a generous retirement plan and the opportunity to serve the most vulnerable children and families in Orange County while supporting our teaching team. This is an 11 month per year position.

Final filing date: Friday, August 12, 2022 at 5:00 p.m.
